Rally for Bally

"Golden Shot" Acrylic on Canvas 81cm x 81cm

"On the Ball" Acrylic on Canvas 81cm x 81cm

Artist, Kaye Parmenter is currently exhibiting sporting artwork at The Queens Club, London. Kaye is taking the opportunity to help raise money for the charity, Rally for Bally, by auctioning two original pieces of artwork, with all the proceeds going to the charity.

'Golden Shot' is an impressionistic portrait of the late Elena Baltacha, who recently lost her battle with cancer. Kaye's inspiration was taken from hours of studying Elena's style, form and movement. With bold use of colour, the painting is intended to be an uplifting celebration of Elena's fantastic contribution to Tennis.

'On the Ball' is inspired by the fluidity, power and strength of the game. Kaye's use of energetic brushstrokes and colour, capture the graceful movement of tennis.

Both paintings will be on display in the Members Clubhouse at Queens for the duration of the Aegon Championships.
